Business Development, By Design.

We don't just design the logo. We design the decision behind it — then the identity, the interface and the systems that make it real. One team, from positioning to production.

01 THE STUDIO

A small studio with large decisions.

Code & Canvas is a business-development studio working at the intersection of brand, product and technology. We enter at the moment a decision gets expensive — a new position, a new product, a new system — and leave with something that runs, not a slide deck.

◆

Brand as an operating system

Identity is not an image; it is a decision system — what you say, what you refuse, and how everything looks from the pitch to the invoice.

The product before the polish

We test the idea before we decorate it. Market evidence, offer clarity and pricing logic come before a single pixel.

▣

Systems, not one-offs

Every deliverable is repeatable and extensible: a design system, a content template, or an automation that runs without us.

The gap we work in

Brand agencies stop at the guideline. Software houses start at the requirements list. Nobody owns the decision in between — we build it.

Strategy → identity → interface → system → operations

Why a studio, not an agency

Two founding partners on the same file: the creative director and the enterprise architect. No account layer, no hand-off chain.

One partner for brand, technology and data

02 WHAT WE BELIEVE

Six convictions that govern every project.

Not marketing lines — operating rules that explain why we decline some projects, why we slow down some phases, and why we deliver less than some expect and more than others need.

01

Business first, then beauty

Beauty that doesn't sell is not design; it is an expense. We start with the economics of the offer before we choose the typeface.

02

One team, no lost hand-off

Strategist, writer, designer and engineer in the same room — or the same file. No translation lost between agency and dev shop.

03

Published scope, before the contract

Every service has a published scope, duration and price band. No hidden hours, no "it depends" halfway through.

04

AI is leverage, not theatre

We apply automation where it saves time or prevents error. If there is no real need, we advise you not to build it.

05

Proof before the promise

We publish numbers and live sites, not slogans. Every build in this profile can be opened and verified.

06

We say no early

If the problem is solved by an off-the-shelf template, we will tell you. A profitable wrong project costs more than an honest no.

03 THE SERVICES

35 services. Seven pillars. One decision.

Every service is published with its scope, duration and price band. Cards marked “New” were added in the 2026 edition to close the gap between brand, product and operations — and any of them can be combined into a single engagement.

What we need from you

One decision-maker, access to internal knowledge, and feedback within 48 hours. That is all.

What we don't do

We don't sell open-ended hours, we don't start execution without scope, and we don't hold source files hostage — they are yours from day one.
